IN RE: Return of Property of National Alliance

Dear Sir or Madam:

I have been prevailed upon by Will Williams of the National Alliance to contact you in order to request the return of certain properties stolen from his organization in West Virginia.

I believe that I was chosen by them, not only because I was a local attorney but because I have a long history of fighting for the rights of minorities. I'm sure that you would agree that the law needs to be applied equally to all. I'm sure that you would agree with the premise that though the majority can rule that there are minority's rights. National Alliance has prevailed upon me as an unpopular minority seeking fair treatment in the courts.

I'm sure that you are aware that receiving knowingly stolen property is a crime. I'm sure that you have no interest in encouraging the criminal activities of one of the National Alliances former employees in distributing stolen property.

My clients are particularly concerned that they have a full inventory as to what was taken by their employee and what still may be in your possession. They want to proceed with the criminal prosecution of Mr. Dilloway. I'm sure that you, likewise, will cooperate with the investigation of this matter, should the West Virginia State Police contact you.

I have been assured that the National Alliance has no ulterior motive in seeking the return of their property.

I'm sure that we can agree that National Alliance, as any minority, is entitled to have their property respected and returned.

I would appreciate if you would contact my office in order that we can make arrangements for the return of all of the National Alliance property.

Very Truly Yours,

Paul S. Detch
